Different Types of Laws

Match the different types of law to the descriptions in the table.

criminal law   statute law   commonwealth law   civil law   common law   state law

TYPE OF LAW	DESCRIPTION
	Law which is created by judge's decisions. Those decisions set precedents which all the lower courts must follow. This type of law is only created when there is a gap in the existing statutes/legislation.
	Law which is created by Parliament through legislation.
	Law which aims to stop anti-social behaviour and danger in our community.
	Law which focuses on formal disagreements between two or more people in our community.
	Law which is made by Federal Parliament sometimes referred to as Commonwealth legislation.
	Law that is made by the State (or Territory) Parliaments and is sometimes referred to as State legislation.

LAWS AND HOW THEY PROTECT OUR RIGHTS

We have many laws that protect our human rights in Australia. Some of these laws are:

- Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Cth)
- Sex Discrimination Act 1984 (Cth)
- Australian Human Rights Commission Act 1986 (Cth)
- Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (Cth)
- Racial Hatred Act 1994 (Cth)
- Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth)
- Equal Opportunity Act 1984 (WA)
- Disability Services Act 1993 (WA)
- Criminal Code 1913 (WA)

The laws that protect our human rights include Commonwealth and State (or Territory laws), the Australian Constitution and the common law.<sup>1</sup> For example, you are generally able to go to work or school of your choice, speak freely, wear the type of clothes that you want, attend church or a place of worship of your choice and be treated equally by everyone.

- 1. Can you think of an example in your community where a person or group of people have not always received the protection of human rights? If so, who is the person or group and what happened?

---

- 2. Do you think there needs to be any new laws put in place to protect this person or group? If so, what do you think it should include?

---

---

Discrimination is when a person is treated less favourably than another person in a similar situation because of their race, nationality, beliefs, age or sex.<sup>2</sup> In Australia there are both Commonwealth and State laws that make it unlawful for a person to discriminate against another person. Australia is also a party to a number of international conventions and declarations which make aim to eliminate discrimination.

Law Enforcement and the Courts

Law enforcement and courts are an essential part of our society and ensures that the rule of law is upheld. Some examples of law enforcement are as follows:

POLICE FORCE	COURTS	AUSTRALIAN CUSTOMS
The Police investigate crimes that have been committed and may charge the person or persons who they believe have broken the law. They do not have any say in the penalty given by the courts.	The courts interpret and apply the law. The Judge or Magistrate decides on the penalty if the person pleads guilty or is found guilty at trial. Commonwealth or Federal Courts include the High Court of Australia and the Federal Court of Australia. Every Australian State and Territory has its own courts. In WA some of those courts are the Supreme Court, District Court, the Magistrates Court and the Children's Court.	Australian Border Force control what people entering Australia can bring into the country such as food, plants, drugs, steroids, weapons, firearms and protected wildlife.

5. If the other students can guess which of the court personnel is being described the person reading will keep the card. Then another student has his/her turn.
6. If the other students cannot guess which of the court personnel is being described the person reading puts the card back. Then another student has his/her turn.
7. Keep going until you have been able to describe the duties of all of the court personnel on the cards.

I am one of twelve people chosen to listen to the evidence. We decide if the accused is guilty or not guilty in the Supreme and District Courts.
Who am I?

I am the judge's personal legal assistant in and out of court.
Who am I?

I take the Judge in and out of court and announce the opening and the closing of court. I also bring witnesses in and out of court.
Who am I?

I am in charge of the court and make sure there is a fair trial. I tell the jury what they have to do and explain the law to them. If the Accused is guilty, I give that person a penalty.
Who am I?

I come to court to give evidence about the case. I must wait outside the court room until I am called to give evidence.
Who am I?

I represent the Accused. I do not have to prove that the Accused is innocent. I try to create doubt that the Accused is guilty.
Who am I?

I speak for the State of Western Australia. I have to prove that the Accused is guilty.
Who am I?

I have been charged with breaking the law. If I say I am guilty I will be given a penalty. If I say I am not guilty there will be a trial. I am always thought to be innocent until proven guilty.
Who am I?

I am the jury spokesperson. I ask the Judge questions and say the verdict in court.

PARKHURST APPRENTICESHIP SCHEME TASK YEAR 5 PRESENTATION

Parkhurst Prison 1820 (from State Library of Western Australia)

TASK

Imagine that you are the Parkhurst boy that your object/s matched on the FBLEP Tour and create an historical narrative about that boy. Develop possible ideas to present your historical narrative as part of a multimodal report. Present your narrative to the class in digital format. You will have to use your imagination and what you know and have learned about the Parkhurst Scheme and the colonisation of Western Australia.

Your historical narrative may include some of the following:

- The boy's name
- The nickname you gave the boy
- The age of the boy when he was transported
- The reason why he was transported
- His job before being transported
- His experience being transported by ship to WA
- Impressions of the Aboriginal people, the colonists, the environment, and/or the animals after arriving in WA
- A description of the family that he had to work for
- The type of work he had to carry out
- His thoughts on the 'apprenticeship' scheme, i.e. good or bad?

Illustrated London News,
13 March 1847

Add any other details which you think are appropriate.

As your presentation is in digital format, aim to present to the class for 2-3 minutes.
Concepts to think about:

Transportation by ship from England to WA took approximately 4 months

- What would the children have experienced during that trip?
- How would they have felt about being transported to WA?

Arriving in WA between 1842-1849

- How different would the environment of WA have been to that of their hometowns?
  - Would the flora and fauna have been the same or different from that of their hometowns?
  - How about the climate? The same or different from that in England?
  - Would there have been many public buildings, shops, houses, theatres etc in WA at that time?

The following hyperlinks may help to picture what life would have been like for the Parkhurst boys:

- ‘The Foundation of Perth’<sup>5</sup> painting by George Pitt Morrison
- ‘Settlement of the Swan’<sup>6</sup> by Ruth Marchant James which includes numerous pictures of Perth in the early days of the colony

Indentured Labour = a legally binding contract where an employee must work for an employer for a set period of time after which the employee gains his/her freedom.

- Quite a few of the Parkhurst boys’ apprenticeships (i.e. their indentured labour contracts) were for longer periods than their original sentence.
  - How would those boys have felt?
  - Does this seem fair?
  - What reasons could there have been for making the apprenticeships longer than the original sentence the boy had received? (The colonists, i.e. the employers, needed the labour.)

Note: If an apprentice disobeyed his employer he could be sentenced to hard labour by a court of law.
