

UNAAWA Entry: The Global Challenges Prize

Be Part of the Conversation – A New Shape for Global Cooperation

Western Australians with ideas on 21st century global governance are invited to collaborate in preparing the UNAAWA entry in The Global Challenges Prize 2017.

The Global Challenges Foundation based in Stockholm is running a worldwide conversation to find models for international decision-making capable of addressing risks facing humanity (a global governance model). The competition is not looking for blueprints to avert specific risks.

See: <https://globalchallenges.org/en>

The model may be a new or revised process and/or structure that must be able to:

- Be implemented in the foreseeable future
- Win significant civic acceptance
- Minimise limits on nation-state sovereignty

Entries are assessed on how well they might manage global risks and meet the criteria of:

1. Core values
2. Decision-making capacity
3. Effectiveness
4. Resources and financing
5. Trust and insight
6. Protection against the abuse of power
7. Decision-maker accountability

Application

Organisations and individuals wishing to contribute to the UNAAWA entry must submit an application form to gcs@unaa-wa.org.au by 5pm 30 June 2017.

Further information provided at a Briefing Session, 5.30pm Friday 26 May at Lotteries House, 33 Moore St, EAST PERTH
RSVP by 24 May to Rees Barrett
Email: gcs@unaa-wa.org.au

The application form is available on request by emailing gcs@unaa-wa.org.au

Based on ideas for global governance outlined in applications, UNAAWA will invite individuals and one representative from organisations to the UNAAWA Visions for Global Governance Conference in Perth, late August (details to be announced). The conference provides a forum for presenting and contesting ideas and achieving consensus on key elements to be included in the UNAAWA entry in The Global Challenges Prize 2017.
